Sun Sep 23 9: The author is a syndicated humor columnist and she does have a flippant sort of humor that drives her narrative forward, but I felt like she was trying too hard to be funny.

Her column can be found monthly on the back page of every issue of Atlanta magazine. Hollis has a regular column in the Atlanta Creative Loafing weekly newspaper. This book I found better than Bleachy Haired Honky Bitch because this one gives you context for the characters she mentions - family and friends and their relationship to .
