Open Preview See a Problem? The right was guaranteed by the City Council to a number of Jews Hungarianized ; Hungarians; 32 Romanians; 28 Germans, 92. The promotion of the Romanian element generated discomfort to the minority inhabitants - who represented the majority in the city - only in the case in which they refused learning and using Romanian language and the cooperation with Romanian authorities, those who adapted having no problem from this point of view.
