And do you think that was Mom? My favorite son one was the dream. Knew nobody would believe me so I recorded it. I just couldn't sit. A consistent blogger, she has a large following on Facebook where she provides solace and inspiration. Visits From Heaven those who have lost their loved ones, providing a platform on which they can speak of their grief, as well as of their communications with their deceased loved ones. My daughter came over and gave me a Visits From Heaven hug, and while we were hugging, the power in the room and all the lights flickered off, then on again, off, then on again, off one more time, and on again, then stayed on for good – three times in quick succession. Dimes and pennies, crystals or stones, feathers, flowers and keys are common examples of the types of objects deceased loved ones may move onto your path. So it continued on my drive home. Your Loved Ones can visit you through your dreams. I lost my darling hubby of 45 years last September and today when I was putting fresh flowers on his grave I spoke to him. On days that I seem the worst, that song will come on.
