She writes long, convoluted sentences with lots of ellipses and parentheses--much the way a person thinks--and so I was waiting until I finished reading this to review it, but since I've been only halfway through for a couple of months, I thought I might as well face the fact that I may never finish it. Tora Fright Patches Things Up:

Richard Parkinson is assistant keeper of the pharaonic collection at the BMA. About halfway through, though, it kicks into a more powerful gear. Jenna marked it as to-read Dec 26, Amazon Advertising Find, attract, and engage customers. Lionel Asbo Jonathan Cape by Martin Amis – it'd be quite enough for this terrific, boisterous novel just to piss off all the ruffled grumpies and tight-knickered critics who like to tell us what's funny and what's serious they're almost always wrong.
