The Emperor Justinian I's formation of a new code of law, the Corpus Juris Civilis served as a basis of subsequent development of legal codes. Schlieffen Plan Poor communication between the two governments led to this catastrophic oversight. They invaded Albania in and annexed after just a week to the Kingdom of Italy.

These Goths were eventually granted lands inside the Byzantine realms south of the Danube. Around BC, as part of the military incursions ordered by Darius I a huge Achaemenid army invaded the Balkans and tried to defeat the Western Scythians roaming to the north of the Danube river. In joining the Central Powers seemed the best route.

As a result, Austria-Hungary's war effort was damaged almost beyond redemption. Tribal unions existed in Dacia at least as early as the beginning of the 2nd century BC under King Orodes. Parts of the Balkans and more northern areas were ruled by the Achaemenid Persians for some time, including Thrace, Paeonia, Macedonia and most Black Sea coastal regions of Romania, Ukraine and Russia.
