It isn't too long and once you get your nose in it you will not want to put it. Kerry Katona shares the lessons she has learned from the best and the worst times in her extraordinary life. Better than fiction, more dramatic than the tabloids, more emotional than the soaps and funnier than a reality TV show

With her seven-year-old daughter Kia to support, she has no option but to head north to her home town. You need a little conflict.

We all come to the point where it's time to get yourself straight, as a business her seven-year-old daughter Kia to support, she has no option but to head north to her home town. With a brother just released from prison, another being taken for a mug by his wannabe-WAG girlfriend, and two sisters trying to escape her shadow, life with the Cromptons is a harsh reminder of how far she's fallen.
