The only reason why I gave this book as many as 2 stars is that it sometimes had odd moments of humor. Enter your HarperCollins account username and password. Jules' Tools for Change:

Kayla Callaway has primaballerina grace and something else that most ballerinas lack. I listened to her and I listened to her, and I thought: A fun little read, which indulged my pre-pubescent fascination of large breasts and ballet. I felt like it was sometimes one-sided, generalising and even bit naive.

Decker illustrates fictionalized storylines backed by very real first-hand experience. It really wasn't worth finishing, but I forced myself to because it was on my Weeds list. Women and girls continue to experience gender-based violence on a daily basis in this country and all countries.
