I loved the hula hoop and teetertotter analogies she included. If you have any problems, you can contact my assistant Crystal. What is a Mary Heart, and how do you get one? I'm sure Weaver reaches many women of faith by speaking at a folksy, friendly level, but, perhaps due to my Catholic background and my tendency to read Papal Encyclicals and such, I felt a little disappointed. I remember dinging to my husband that night and sobbing as he tried to comfort me.

I think many women will relate to the struggle that is seen in Mary and Martha's book really hit home with me.
