This book sucked me in from the first few pages! Preview – Alight by K.

Basically, Alight just doesn't have the magnetic appeal that Pyxis. This story is so good. Anyway, the conspiracy surrounding these little bottles of wonder continues as Corinne, and her friends Angelina and Mason enter our mc's love interest discover a secret society surrounding the bottles, and the awakening of their own powers to defeat the rise of a terrible being coming for them and their town. She also needs to learn how to work with her Union to fight off potential threats. When the Guardian is revealed Corinne must learn to work with them no matter how difficult it is to get .

So many questions left unanswered and I look forward to the next book, hopefully jumped right into reading this book without knowing what it was. Overall, in Alight, the stakes are higher, a possible new love interest arises, friendships are mended, and battles are fought.
