Set up a giveaway. A newspaper article describes an instrument called the "basse-tube," invented by G. It had thirteen keys, at a time when most soprano clarinets had fewer.

Beautiful, but then a violin or cello doesn't have to breathe. Alternatively you can play a bass clarinet. Someone who plays a bass clarinet is called a bass clarinetist. In comparison with the saxophone the variance in sounds you can produce on a clarinet is limited, a sax is easier and faster to learn, and looks good.

Leonard Bernstein, West Side Story. Written by James D. Most modern bass clarinets are straight-bodied, with a small upturned silver-colored metal bell and curved metal neck.
