It is difficult to reconcile the two interpretations within the same essay. If you are analysing violence, begin with the victims. At the very least – and this may seem self-evident – this difficulty needs to be recognised and articulated. This is a virtue of the volume. Academic Skip to main content. Trying to expose or root out a particular example is always a bit of a witch-hunt and usually has another agenda on the back of it. Second, post violence can be understood as an extension of the nationalist revolution pursuing a United Ireland. In reality, this was less a serious discussion about the nature of Irish history.
