How many times do we look for more? We're looking for just the right rug to go in the living room, or the right guest towels, welcome mat, throw.

It doesn't mean you are everything, or that you're flawless and perfect. You don't have to be more, or do more, or buy more to be who you are meant to be. If "being enough" means "being perfect," then you are enough is just another reason to hide your true self. Sign up to receive new posts and updates each week!.
