This is a long book, but well worth the read. Also tips on how to deal with people with differing styles, and how to tell when traits descend into personality disorders!

Highly spiritual, this person has difficulty operating according to conventional norms. She hadn't known what to do with her days. Remember me on this computer. It's an easy read, and I personally can't say enough about this book.

Although this section is mere pages long, the information given is invaluable. I found this one much more valuable for a few reasons. The Kindle version does not have a table of contents or an easy way to get to a specific place in the book without paging through the entire book.
