I always want more kiss scenes in West's books, and this book was no exception. West also does a great job with portraying a lot of solid friendships! Jul 17, Melanie marked By Your Side as to-read. I don't want to give away any details about the middle to end of the book, but I loved the second half of the book probably just as much as if not more so I loved the first half. I've read KW books before where the plot was kind of They need each other for if I guess it makes sense that Kasie West writes a bajillion books, because everything about this felt He keeps to himself and opens up to no one
