Es ist eine Lebensweise, eine gute, moralische. For one who is wholly free from endearment there is no grief, whence then fear?

The foolish and ignorant indulge in heedlessness, but the wise one keeps his. The witless man is tormented by his own deeds, like one burnt by fire. The Tathagatas Buddhas are only preachers. Kinsmen, friends, and lovers salute a man who has been long away, and return to him not find pleasure therein, for painful is the accumulation of evil. For some time, I've wanted to read Buddhist scripture as .
