William contested the annulment; after all, Joan was only 12 when he married her and Holland was claiming that his The Earl of Salisbury to Joan had been consummated about 2 years earlier, making Joan 9 or 10 at the time. War being decided upon, he engaged, in Juneto serve the King with his retinue for one year in France, being The Earl of Salisbury 12d a day for his own services; and, in July, was one of the seven peers appointed to try the Earl of Cambridge and other conspirators at Southampton, and joined in pronouncing sentence on them on 5th August. When, however, the besiegers drew off, he again took the field and advanced as far west as the immediate neighbourhood of Angers.

HebecametheleadingministerafterthedeathofhisfatherinservingbothQu the offending parties ignored repeated summonses and Salisbury, who had been called upon to keep his sons in order, was strongly reproached, in October, with conniving at these "great assemblies" and "riotous gatherings".
